

Lamps

Perhaps the most decorative indoor lighting option, lamps provide mood, task, and alternative lighting for any room in the home.

Here, we'll take a quick look at the styles and benefits of some basic lamp types. Floor lamps : Floor lamps come in a range of styles and feature a shaded bulb. Floor lamps such as these are perfect in small spaces next to chairs or sofas where there's no room for an end table and table lamp. Table lamps: Table lamps come in any size, shape, and color you want. Place them on end and sofa tables or bedside stands for reading light.
